Editorial

It is June, 1959, and suddenly and sadly we realize that our high school days are over. We have taken one last look at our beloved high school and the memories it brings to us. Now we turn our backs to all this and search into the darkness and uncertainty of the future--the forbidding future with its pitfalls ready to make us stumble on our march towards success and happiness. But do we go into this fight unarmed? No, we are armed and inspired with our hard-earned education and enduring friendships which will keep us striving forward until we have reached our goals. Yes, we have all been prepared for the unknown future by our teachers who have guided us with a patient hand during our wonderful, although sometimes difficult, four years at Williamsburg High School.

We, the class of 1959, are ready for this big challenge and accept it proudly.

Dedication . . .

We, the class of 1959, proudly and appreciatively dedicate "The Tattler" to Mrs. Frances Grinnell, whose time, effort, friendliness, and willingness to help, have made our four years at Williamsburg High School a truly rewarding experience.

Will of the Class of 1959

We, the class of 1959, being of unsound mind and body do hereby proclaim this to be our last will and testament. Upon our departure from Williamsburg High School, we bequeath our most beloved possessions to the following:

ARTICLE I

SECTION I Walter Wittshirk leaves his Yul Brynner haircut to Ed O'Brien whose own is currently patterned after Mozart's.

SECTION II Dorcas Houle, helping to stock the Goshen Library, leaves to it her four closets full of "Mad" magazines.

SECTION III Dave Healy is handed down John Judd's pair of elevator shoes.

SECTION IV Kathy Lavalle wills her charge account at Saks to Williamsburg High's female faculty members.

SECTION V Judy Breguet regretfully leaves her sister Jeannie to carry on with her boy chasing activities at Williamsburg High School.

ARTICLE II

SECTION I Steven Thayer leaves his lightning speed and alertness to Bill McAvoy.

SECTION II Larry Stout, who is always being picked on, leaves all his worldly possessions to benefit the work of the SPCC.

SECTION III Bethany Hemenway wills her ability to eat and not show it to Pat Lyons.

SECTION IV Otis Sears returns the custody of the school to those who should rightfully be in charge.

SECTION V Esther Snow, for obvious reasons, leaves her winning smile to Mr. Tonet.

ARTICLE III

SECTION I The Chesterfield belles, Carol Smith, Martha Hinton, and Emilianna McCoy disclose their many schemes to make the school bus late in the morning to the Healy brothers.

SECTION II Andrea Culver wills her date book to Sue Senecal.

SECTION III Larry Ames leaves his complete mastery of the English language to Mrs. Thomas to use as future reference.

SECTION IV Marian Gagnon parts with her red Bermuda shorts and gives them to Bonnie Albert who should continue to put them to the best of use.

SECTION V To Cecil A. P. Thomas, Jr., Brian King leaves his winning ways with the gentler sex.

SECTION VI Joseph Gagne bequeaths his beloved church key to Rickie Wittshirk.

ARTICLE IV

SECTION I Charlotte Parker leaves her ability to get a diamond to Diana Damon, in hopes that she will someday settle down to one man.

SECTION II Impeccable Paul Webb wills his life to the girl who bids the highest.

SECTION III Glenn Richardson leaves his basketball dribbling ability to Neil Menard who is expected to take over when Glenn graduates.

SECTION IV Frank Kuschka wills his book of practical jokes to the school library. Inside is inscribed his learn-the-hard-way-anxious "Don't overdo it."

SECTION VI Harry Williston leaves his pipe collection to the Springfield Museum.

ARTICLE V

SECTION I Richard Roberge declines to leave anything. He just wants to leave.

History of the Class of 1959

We entered Williamsburg High School with great hopes for our next four years. Our number was then thirty-four, but we lost Ferrelyn Dillard during the course of the year. We were enthusiastically led by our class officers. They were as follows: President, William Reeves; Vice-President, Steven Thayer; Secretary, Esther Snow; Treasurer, Andrea Culver; Historian, Kathy Lavalle. When the seniors told us it was time for Freshman Reception we were sure we'd never pull through; but surprisingly enough, everyone survived.

Our sophomore year brought us three more students, Dorcas Houle, Harry Williston, and Richard Muraski, but took from us Richard Warren, Beverly LaCasse, Gerald Magdalenski, Sandra Bernier, William Reeves, Stephen Johnson, Dennis Larkin, and Richard Muraski who was with us but for a few weeks.

Our officers that year were: President, Brian King; Vice-President, Marian Gagnon; Secretary, Esther Snow; Treasurer, Andrea Culver; Historian, Bethany Hemenway. Finding the treasury very meager, we decided to sponsor a food sale which proved to be lucrative. We also helped with the Christmas Dance which was the project of the whole school.

Our junior year began with the election of class officers as follows: President, Brian King; Vice-President, Steven Thayer; Secretary, Esther Snow; Treasurer, Andrea Culver; Historian, Marian Gagnon.

We gained three students that year; Diane Doggart, Ronald Low, and Otis Sears. However, three others left: Connie Baker, Mary Carr, and William McAvoy.

This was our year to sponsor the prom, and we outdid ourselves decorating the gym to match our theme "Garden of Eden." Rod MacLeod's music was featured, and the prom was certainly a success.

Well, here we are seniors, and so quickly, too. Patricia Morrey, Diane Doggart, and Ronald Low are no longer with us and our number is now twenty-five.

History repeated itself when the officers were the same as the preceding year.

We sponsored the Freshman Reception; everyone had a lot of fun with the possible exception of the freshmen. "We all go through it," we told them, but it didm't make much difference to them.

We are especially proud of our "Winter Wonderland" dance. It was one of "the" dances of the year, and it was successful.

Now it is time for us to graduate, after a period of time that hardly seems four months, though it has been four years. We shall soon be going our separate ways and can only hope that friendships and fun at Burgy High will not be forgotten.

Class Prophecy

Members of the Class of 1959, friends, relatives, and innocent bystanders.

Tonight we commemorate the 25th reunion of the Class of 1959. Many of our members are spread all over the United States, some are in Europe, and many have stayed right here in Williamsburg. To make our reunion more interesting, I have visited with each classmate so that I can tell you tonight what each one is doing.

One of the most interesting occupations noted is that of Larry Stout, who runs an alligator ranch in his native land of Florida. There he searched for "Oscar" deep in the Everglades. Oscar refused to leave the swamp without his whole family which had grown to include some forty odd children and grandchildren.

Martha Hinton is a rocket scientist at Cape Canaveral. She is working on a new style, air-cushioned, two-seater rocket expected to reach the moon in about an hour. This model is especially designed for teen-age dates so the young people can get a closer look at that moon. Martha also experiments with electric eels, so I accompanied her to Mobile, Alabama, to meet a new shipment.

When we arrived at the pier, I immediately recognized a familiar figure bending over a piece of broken machinery on the bow of the ship. Grease rags were hanging out of every pocket, his long beard hung down to his chest and was tucked inside his Captain's uniform, of which the two top buttons were unbuttoned. Yes, it was Otis Sears.

Carol Smith is running an orphanage in the hills of West Virginia. With all her baby-sitting experience during her high school years, I wasn't surprised that she had made a career of caring for children.

I met Frank Kuschka on a train bound for Washington. After writing his first song, "The Kuschka Cha-Cha-Cha," he became an overnight success. His band travels all over the country playing his rhythmic songs.

In the nation's capital, Glen Richardson was perched on a soapbox giving a vigorous speech supporting the President's foreign policy. A contract with a national baseball club had enabled him to meet many influential people; so, when he retired from the sports world, he became an aggressive politician.

Three of my classmates were in New York City. Judy Breguet had become quite a career girl, being a wonderful nurse and a part-time model. As we entered the fashion shop in which she modeled, we were greeted by Kathy Lavalle. Kathy now owns one of the most successful shops in New York, catering exclusively to Park Avenue matrons.

Then I met Larry Ames hurrying down Fifth Avenue. I inquired why he was wearing such thick lensed glasses, and he replied that he was still searching for the right girl.

Before leaving for Europe, I had time to see Dorcas Houle in that booming metropolis of Southwest Reeds North Ferry, New Hampshire. She had gone there to teach in a one room schoolhouse, but because of the demand for transportation had gone into the taxi-cab business. Mr. Tonet will be very much pleased to hear about this.

As I was speeding over the Atlantic, the radio picked up a London station. When the rock and roll song ended, Harry Williston's voice startled me. Evidently his interest in radio and music had paid off. He was a guest disc jockey for the BBC. The commercial made me listen closely. Harry explained that he was helping out an American sales representative, Brian King, who was trying to sell black-watch plaid toothpaste to those terribly conservative Londoners. Brian claimed that the toothpaste would not only destroy tooth decay and mouth odor, but would cure neuritis, neuralgia, and neuremia all in one operation.

Irene Timmermann now lives in Germany, and is a photographer's assistant in Frankfort. She recently won a pirze for reading one million books.

John Judd went to Germany to learn more about building roads, so he could take over his father's job and help modernize highways in Massachusetts. While there he discovered a hidden talent and is now the star of the Berlin Opera. You just never know--

I contacted Andrea Culver, who was in Siberia as a missionary. We agreed to fly back to Williamsburg together. When I met her, she surprised me with a handsome Russian husband. They seem to be helping relationships between our two nations. It took only two hours to cross the Atlantic. Andrea wanted to give her husband a taste of American night life, so we went to the Williams House that evening. This establishment had changed into a very swank nightclub. Dick Roberge is the owner. Every winter he travels abroad looking for new talent for his floor show, of which he is the master of ceremonies.

Among the wonderful acts in the show were Esther Snow and her sister singing duets. You'd never guess that Esther is married and the mother of ten lovely children.

The next day I stopped in to see Charlotte Parker. She had converted her kitchen into a replica of the Snack Bar, and was just taking one of her delicious hamburgers off the grill.

Joe Gagne is the boss of the Grocer's Union, and still works at the A&P. Two years from now he plans to buy up all the First National stores in Massachusetts.

Paul Webb works at a hunting lodge in Goshen. He was a state forester for years, but so many girls were sending smoke signals to him, the whole forestry service was in chaos, so Paul was forced to resign.

Emilianna McCoy is in Chesterfield on vacation from her exciting career playing "Kate" in "The Real McCoys."

Steve Thayer has opened a Fred Astaire dance studio in Northampton. We all know how he loves to dance.

Marian Gagnon, after teaching school for a few months, met THE man, married, and has five little boys. Her wonderful cooking is appreciated at Alexander's restaurant where she works part-time.

Last, but not least, is Walter Wittshirk. He is in Hollywood as an understudy for Yul Brynner. He studies philosophy at UCLA when not acting.

As for myself, there really isn't much to say except that I am still struggling to keep my weight down, my bank account up, and my friends from wondering why I'll never believe in "going steady."

Underclassmen

With a slight feeling of superiority the Junior Class settled down to begin another school year. We got right down to business and elected officers to lead our class. They were as follows: President, Stanley Gromelski; Vice-president, John Munroe; Secretary, William Munroe; Treasurer, Reed Boisjolie; and Historian, Jeannie Breguet.

We gained two new pupils, Pat Morrey, and Janice Miller, and lost two, Tim Mosher and Tina Laughton. The class as a whole sponsored a very successful "sock hop" in January, and soon after that we began planning for the biggest highlight of the school year--The Junior Prom.

It was very successful, and next year, as seniors we'll be looking back, I'm sure, on all the fun we've had during our junior year.

Sophomores

This fall we returned to school feeling more experienced and mature. Our class was split up into two groups; Mr. Branch had half and Mrs. Grinnell, the other half. However, after the first week of school Mrs. Grinnell was taken sick and a substitute, Mrs. Bart, took over our homeroom. We figured we could get away with murder with a substitute, but we were mistaken, because Mrs. Bart had two teenagers of her own, and in a week she knew us all like a book.

This year the President of our class is Dan Dunlevy; the Vice-president, Billy Ames; Secretary, Susan Clark; Treasurer, David Braman; and Historian, Mary Richardson.

Charles Kellogg was elected treasurer of the newly-organized Student Council, and Nicky Warren a representative.

Our chief activities for this year were a skit for the Christmas assembly and a dance in the month of March.

Freshmen

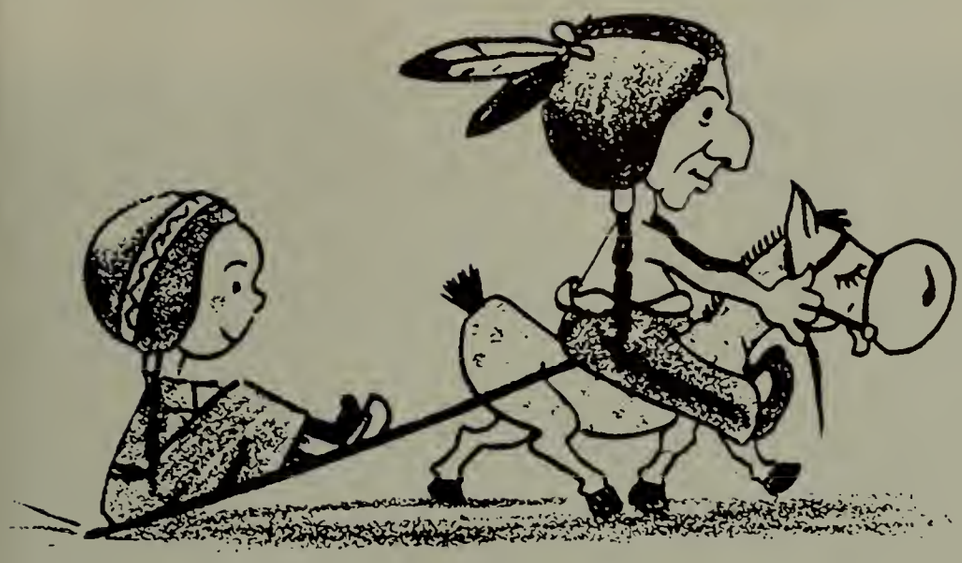
On September 4 our large class of 41 pupils first entered into the routine of high school life. We elected the following officers: Barbara Hinton, President; Andy Burr, Vice-president; Michael Dymerski, Secretary; Neal Menard, Treasurer; and Joanne Brooks, Historian. To the newly formed student council we elected Gail Mougin. We were rather shy at first and a bit terrified whenever "Freshman Reception" was mentioned, but that much feared night of September 26 went by with us not too much for the worse.

Our first project as a class was the dance which we put on in November. This dance netted a large profit; therefore our non-existent treasury got off to a good start. In April we put on another dance which also was successful.

Our future years at Williamsburg High School seem promising and we only hope they will be as successful as our first.



Activities

Tattler Staff

Editors

SEATED: Martha Hinton, Brian King, Marian Gagnon. STANDING: Mrs. Thomas, advisor; Steven Thayer, Glenn Richardson, Carol Smith, Andrea Culver.

Science Club

This year we have had two successful trips, one to the Smith College greenhouse and another to the Springfield Museum. Also on our schedule for the year are a trip to Snow's sugar house, a science fair, and one or two geology trips.

Library Club

Our library club this year has met the first Tuesday in each month. We have had a talk by Mr. George Bean on his book, YANKEE AUCTIONEER; we have assigned students to fill the various bulletin boards in the library; we collected books in March for our library; and we arranged for an assembly in April on the Strategic Air Command given by officials from the Westover Air Force Base.

SEATED: Jeannie Breguet, Pearl Adams. STANDING: Billy Munroe, Bing Munroe.

Pro-Merito

Debating

This year the first round of the Connecticut Valley Debating Society was held at Williamsburg, and we won 3 out of 6 debates which put us in a tie for third place in the league. The second round was held at Hopkins Academy where we lost all four debates. The third round will be held at Marhar Regional. Our record now stands at a discouraging 3 and 7. Mr. Roger took some of us to the Clark University Tournament in Worcester. We have been somewhat hampered by lack of experience which has worked itself out with practice, and we are looking forward to a better time next year.

The Music Dept. of Williamsburg High School

The Music Department had a busy year. An extra festival at Chicopee in December was attended by a group from our orchestra and Glee Club. These people were obliged to prepare for auditions before they were accepted. The entire mixed Glee Club prepared an audition for the May festival at Hadley.

Accepted from our music groups for the All-State Festival at Hyannis, Massachusetts, in April were for the chorus; Susan Senecal, and for the orchestra; Betty Sherk and Kenneth Sherk.

A spring concert was given in the gymnasium May 15, at which time choral numbers were given by the Mixed Glee Club, the Girls' Glee Club, and by smaller units such as duets and trios. Instrumental numbers were given by the senior orchestra and by smaller ensembles, as well as soloists.

Numbers were prepared by the Glee Club for Class Night and graduation.

Driver Education

The 1958-59 Driver Education Class, consisted of thirty-seven members, determined to absorb the fundamentals of good driving attitudes and appreciations. They fulfilled the minimum requirement of thirty hours of classroom instruction.

Because of excessive administrative expenses, behind-the-wheel training was eliminated. However, students who successfully completed the classroom phase of the program were eligible to receive the Registry of Motor Vehicles Driver Education Certificate upon completion of six hours of behind-the-wheel training at a certified commercial driver training school.

Student Council

In 1959 Williamsburg High School's first Student Council was formed. The election of officers and delegates was held in January after a committee of students had drawn up a constitution and put on an assembly to present this new constitution to the student body. It was unanimously accepted, and plans were made for the first student council election. Elected to lead Williamsburg Student Council were Brian King, President; Steven Thayer, Vice-President; Charles Kellogg, Treasurer; Gail Mougin, Secretary. The class representatives were Andrea Culver, Senior Class Representative; Betty Sherk and Richard Warren, Junior Class Representatives; Nick Warren, Sophomore Class Representative; Joel Hurd, Eighth Grade Representative; Carol Otis, Seventh Grade Representative.

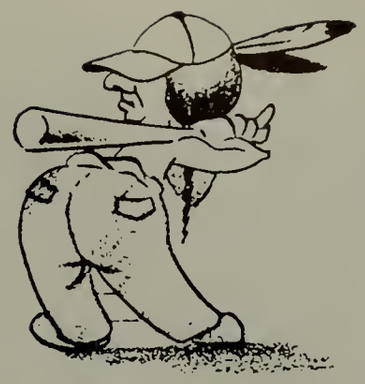
Ideas for Student Council activities were received from a meeting with the Holyoke High School Student Council. Our first big activity was to provide for a second bus to the Clark School game and dance and also to the Tournament games. We also sponsored a dance in March to swell our treasury. During the school year we worked on a student handbook and revising the constitution which we found had many shortcomings.

Considering everything we had a successful year, and we all sincerely feel that in future years the Student Council will play a bigger and better part in the life of Williamsburg High School.

Press Club

SEATED: Charlotte Parker, Esther Snow, Judy Breguet, Kathy Lavalle, Helen Symons. STANDING: Peter Batura, William Munroe, David Healy, James Outhouse, Cecil Thomas.

The Press Club, a newly organized group at Williamsburg High School, handles all news items for activities. A scrapbook is being kept of news items that have appeared in local newspapers.



Sports

Cheerleaders

STANDING: Kathy Lavalle, Sue Senecal. KNEELING: Beverly Morin, Charlotte Parker, Nancy Dufresne, Janice Miller, Marian Gagnon, and Marilyn Boucher.

The Cheerleaders this year are happy to report that we have had a fairly good season.

Last year we lost Sandy Kmit, Ellie Leonard, and Terry Smith, so this year we added Beverly Morin, Janice Miller, and Marilyn Boucher to take their places.

With the changing of styles we also felt the need for changing our uniforms. This new improvement was liked by all.

In May we plan to attend a cheering clinic at Springfield College so that we will be able to study the new ideas and styles of cheering.

Those of us who are leaving this year wish those whom we are leaving behind a lot of luck, and we hope that they will have as much fun as we have had.

Girls' Basketball

The 1958-59 season was quite successful for our girls' basketball team. The girls entered the Franklin League again this year and won the championship.. To enable us to play more games, yet keep fairly near this area, we played some teams from larger schools, such as Northampton High School, Cooley Dickinson Nurses, and Saint Michaels'. Northampton and the nurses accounted for 4 of our 5 losses, the fifth of which was to the Alumnae. All in all through the untiring efforts of our coach, Mrs. Kmit, managers Martha Morrey and Paulette LaPalm, and the team, we ended with 8 wins, 5 losses, and 1 tie, a season of which we are all quite proud.

For the first time this year, we were happy to have a J.V. team made up of freshmen and sophomores. These girls played a total of six games, with a 3-3 won and lost record. This program has given valuable experience to these girls which will aid in building stronger teams in the future.

The Williamsburg countryside viewed a new sport this fall as the first cross-country team to represent Williamsburg High School went into action. For many weeks the team prepared strenuously for their three meets. They were seen running up hills, down hills, over dirt roads and across meadows. This hearty band of runners soon captured the admiration of not only the student body, but also many townspeople, and our meets were enthusiastically attended.

The first meet was at Charlemont where the course was found to be quite hilly although not too difficult. This fact may be seen by the results of the race which Burgy won 21 to 46. Williamsburg placed four men among the first five finishers with Walt Wittshirk barely being edged at the finish. In a return meet with Charlemont at Williamsburg the Burgy High team again won handily 16 to 59. Dan Dunlevy finished first to lead our team to a nearly perfect race. In our last run against a highly experienced Amherst Regional High School team on the Amherst College Freshman Course we were again victorious. The final score in this meet was 20 to 39, with Dan Dunlevy again leading the two teams.

An undefeated season climaxed our first cross-country effort and much credit is due the members of our squad. Happily, many of our runners are underclassmen, who, with added experience will give Williamsburg High School its successful teams of the future.

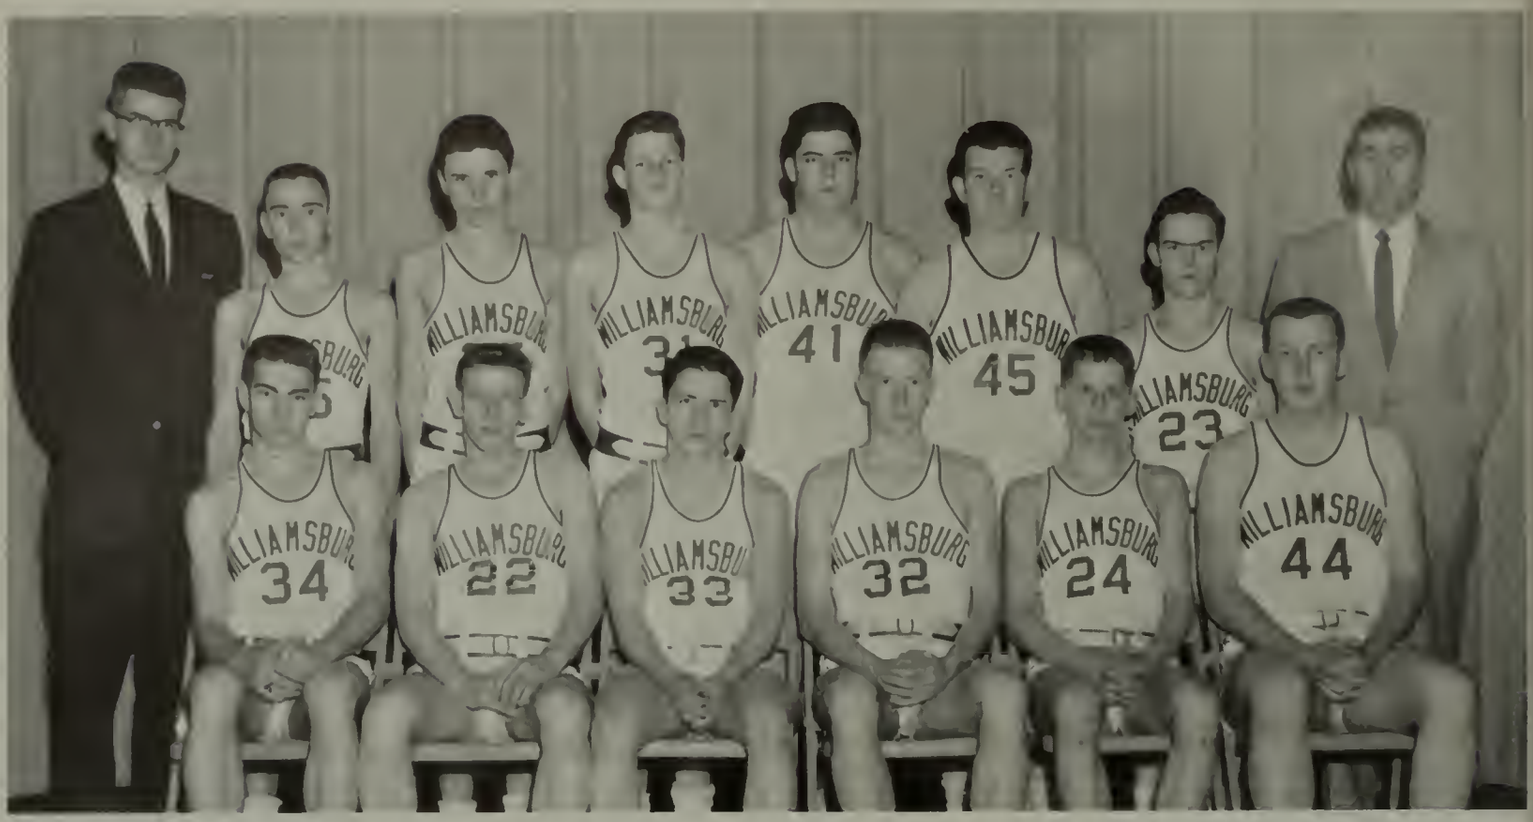
Boys' Basketball



STANDING: Harry Williston, mgr.; Richard Graves, Paul Webb, Neal Menard, Reed Boisjolie, Glenn Richardson, Mr. Tonet, coach. SEATED: Steve Thayer, Will Samson, Timo Moynahan, Brian King, Ricky Graves, John Judd.

The Williamsburg High School basketball team started to practice early in October in preparation for their first game on December 16. Overconfidence and inexperience led to their downfall in the first two games. The team broke into the win column in their next game with a lopsided victory over Chicopee Vocational. From that point, the team was more successful and concluded the season with 14 victories in 22 contests. Two particular events highlighted the season: an 8 point victory over a strong Belchertown team; and secondly, the fact that they lost only one game on their home court.

In the 16th annual Tri-State Tourney, Williamsburg moved to the final round of the consolation event, but was defeated in an overtime contest 39-36 by Sanderson Academy.

The team was led throughout the year by their high-scoring captain, Brian King. The play-making of Tim Moynahan combined with Ricky Graves' driving, and the shooting and rebounding of Steve Thayer, Paul Webb, John Judd, and Will Samson produced a fairly well-balanced floor attack. Playing their last game in Burgy uniforms are Brian King, Paul Webb, Glenn Richardson, John Judd, and Steve Thayer. Replacing these boys next year and in future years will be a fine group of J.V. ballplayers, who received a great deal of experience from 8 games this year.

Basketball Banquet

"Hair for Next Season"

"From the Team to You"

"Mr. Tonet's Pride and Joy"

This year we were again fortunate to have a successful Basketball Banquet sponsored by the Citizens' Committee.

After a delicious turkey dinner the program began with Mr. Branch as master of ceremonies. Mr. Richard and Mr. Roger each gave a brief talk congratulating both Mr. Tonet and Mrs. Kmit. Team members and cheerleaders were surprised and in many cases embarrassed when their baby pictures were flashed on a large screen for all to see.

However, Mr. Tonet was also on the receiving end of good-natured pranks, in the form of "Earl Tonet, This Is Your Life." We learned many deep dark secrets of our beloved coach, and we were glad to find his youth much like our own.

The highlight of the evening came, of course, with the presentation of awards. Mr. Tonet presented each of his senior boys with trophies. Those receiving them were Paul Webb, Brian King, Steven Thayer, Glenn Richardson, and John Judd. The remainder of the boys received tie clasps. Otis Sears and Harry Williston received trophies for their excellent work as managers. Brian King and Rickie Graves shared honors for the W. Malcolm Heath Memorial Plaque awarded for foul shooting.

Mrs. Kmit awarded trophies to her senior girls, Esther Snow, Judy Breguet, and Andrea Culver. The rest of the team and the cheerleaders received lipsticks and mirrors.

It was a fitting climax to the season and one which will long be remembered by those who, because of graduation, participated for the last time.

"Nice going, Ricky!"
